NEWSPAPER LAW. Subscribers who do not express notice...

AGENTS FOR THE JOURNAL. JOHN P. VAUGHAN, Winchester, Tenn.

The Louisville and Nashville Rail Road is now running from Nashville to Gallatin...

Gen. Scott has removed the Headquarters of the Army from West Point to New York City.

An irate lady, Mrs. Lyons, indicted a cowardly editor of a local sheet in Cincinnati...

Another case for the Chickasaw. Mr. Orville Case, of Sumner county, informs the editor of the Journal...

As soon as he discovered a log which he had been driven down pits...

The fellow who attempted to "speak his mind," found that he could begin to get a square large enough.

Always prepare your table neatly, whether you have company or not.

With women as with warriors, there is no robbery—all is conquest.

TO THE LADIES. READ! READ!

We want to get a club of twenty-five subscribers among the hundreds of young ladies who board in our town and attend school.

We want more than twenty-five, but will not be avaricious. Proceed at twenty-five and we will be satisfied.

The paper will be left at your boarding house and you can read it and send it home to your friends or relations.

Now, young ladies two dollars will entitle you to a whole year's subscription—only one dollar more per session for your expenses.

Agents for the Journal wanted, to whom a good per cent will be allowed.

Notice. Go to Handly & Henderson's and see the beautiful assortment of fine jewelry...

When women say of another of the sex "she is well-formed," it means that she is ugly and pock-marked.

She stood beside the counter, The day he'll not forget; She thought the man dearer Than any she'd seen yet!

How to tell a lawyer. A few years since a gentleman, being beyond the limits of his neighborhood...

"My name is—, and as to the business I follow, if you are at all smart, you can guess that from my appearance—can't you see that I am a timber cutter?"

"No boss, you no timber cutter." "An overseer, then?" "No, sir, you no look like one."

"Don't think so boss, dey don't ride in sulley." "Well, how do you think I will do for a preacher?"

"I sorter speer, you is dot, sir!" "I have, Callee, you are a greater fool than Iook you for—don't look none like a lawyer than anything else!"
